

2018 Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo Pageant

Queen/Princess Contestants –

Thank you for your interest in the 2018 Butterfield Stage Days Queen/Princess Contest! Here you will find the official pageant rules, application, contract, waiver agreement, itinerary and the horsemanship pattern.

The pageant events consist of horsemanship, speech, poise and personality, and interview questions. Contestants need to also be prepared to attend required appearances for sponsors, media interviews and the Butterfield Stage Days Parade and Rodeo.

The opportunity to represent the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo for one year is a great honor! To prepare our Queen/Princess to hold the title of Miss Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo Queen/Princess, all contestants will be expected to follow all rules and regulations along with meeting each of the eligibility requirements listed on the following pages.

There will be two categories for the Rodeo Royalty:

Rodeo Queen – ages 11 – 18

Rodeo Princess – ages 7 – 10

BACK CONTESTANT NUMBERS: will be distributed during Orientation on Saturday, February 10, 2018 at 7:30am. You will wear your assigned number during all judged events (horsemanship, speeches, interview and modeling).

BIOGRAPHY: The biography must be typed, in a standard font and printed on white paper. No other pages or computer altered biographies will be accepted.

CONDUCT AND BEHAVIOR POLICY: Enclosed is a copy of agreement, this policy was written to insure the integrity of the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo and the Arizona Junior Rodeo Association.

GRAND ENTRY DRESS CODE is western casual (western shirt, dark blue jeans, western boots and hat).

Grand Entry General Rules:

- Contestants must be mounted with saddles and bridles.
- No additional script will be read; only standard introduction of contestant will be made.
- You may dress in a costume that best describes your personality.
 - A contestant may wear a sports jersey over their shirt, or a surfer girl may wear a swim suit over their shirt and jeans.
- Nothing may be thrown or distributed during the Grand Entry.
- Anything attached to the horses or riders must be safely secured in a way that will not be a hazard to the horses or riders.

This event is intended to be safe and fun; however, safety must prevail over fun!!

HORSEMANSHIP DRESS CODE: Blue denim jeans and a plain white cotton shirt with long sleeves, collar, hat and number. PLEASE NOTE: Shirt is to be plain, no ruffles, accessories, tuxedo shirts or other fancy styles are not allowed.

INTRODUCTIONS will be given a deduction of 10 points from the total score if you deviate from this list. For the introduction, we are looking for something short, simple and to the point. Your introduction should include name, age, hometown and school that you attend.

- One (1) vertical photograph (5X7), head and shoulders shot only, no full lengths, no crown or banner. No emailed photos accepted.

SPEECH TOPIC:

Queen – prepare a 3 - 4-minute speech; “What it means to be a Rodeo Queen.”

Princess – prepare a 2-minute speech; “Tell us about your rodeo and/or competition horse from the perspective of your horse.”

Contestants will be judged on content, creativity, voice projection, enunciation and grammar, use of microphone, self-confidence and stage appeal.

SPEECH AND MODELING DRESS CODE. is western casual stated above with the option as outlined here: Speech and Modeling Competition: At the speech and modeling portion of the competition, contestants have the option of suits, dresses, skirts, blouses, dress pants, colored jeans and shirts.

WESTERN CASUAL DRESS CODE: Contestants will wear jeans and western blouses or shirts (no jackets and/or vests are allowed) at all judged events except the speech and modeling competition and horsemanship, where specific attire are allowed. Shirts must be tucked in. Long sleeves, collar, hat and number are mandatory for all categories of the competition. No dresses or skirts during crowning ceremony. All blouses, dresses and shirts worn in the Queen/Princess Contest must have long sleeves and collars.

Please educate yourself in the history and culture surrounding the Butterfield Overland Stage Coach as there will be questions covering this topic.

Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo Pageant Conduct and Behavior Policy and Agreement

You will be a representative of the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo and symbolic of its reputation, principles and interest to other students and adults in the community. Because of the importance of your position and what your appearance and behavior say to others about you, it is imperative you understand the expectations and responsibilities that accompany your position. You will be expected to comply with the dress code and other requirements and behave in accordance with the standards provided in the Rules and policies set by the Butterfield Stage Days Committee.

The Rules and Bylaws provide that acts of insubordination, misconduct or acts, which are detrimental to the reputation, principles and interest of the Butterfield Stage Days Committee, will subject a contestant to discipline. Disciplinary action can include a variety of penalties – even removal of title.

Activities for which discipline has been, and will be imposed include (but are not limited to) any association with or use of alcohol or drugs, or immoral or lewd conduct. Regardless of the permissive laws of Arizona or the indulgence or permission of your parents or legal guardian, these activities will not be permitted while you are attending local or state rodeo events, meeting or functions or serving as a representative of the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo in any way.

The Butterfield Stage Days Committee will investigate all alleged offenses and the incident will be reported to the queen's parent or guardian. A hearing pursuant to the Disciplinary Action or Disqualification will be scheduled at which the queen/princess will have the opportunity to present a defense to the charges.

Upon the imposition of Disciplinary Action requiring relinquishment of the crown, or, suspension or expulsion from the Butterfield Stage Days Committee, the crown and all other property of the Butterfield Stage Days Committee must be returned within seven (7) days at the queen/princess expense. Other items that belong to the Butterfield Stage Days Committee and are required to be returned with the crown, include, but are not limited to, the Queen Parade Banner, buckle, sash and all other Butterfield Stage Days property.

During your year, you will be required to adhere to all the Butterfield Stage Days policies and procedures for travel, making appearances, attending official functions, state meetings, activities and any other State or local events. You will be expected to carry out all responsibilities as Queen/Princess. Expectations: As Queen or Princess, you will be required to attend the following functions (not limited to the following): February 26, 2018 Council Meeting; Town of Gila Bend 4th of July Celebration; August 23, 2018 League of Arizona Cities and Towns conference and the December Holiday Light Parade/Santa in the Park event.

As the Queen/Princess, you should be aware that posting photographs, comments or statements on any website such as Snap Chat, Facebook or any other website or internet page that associates them with the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo is not allowed without the permission of the Butterfield Stage Days Committee. They should also be aware that any statement, comments or photographs posted that sheds a negative light or is detrimental to the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo, its mission or the sport of rodeo in anyway could subject them to disciplinary action resulting in censure, probation, removal, suspension or expulsion.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

I have read and am familiar with the rules pertaining to dress code and conduct contained in the Rules and Bylaws of the Butterfield Stage Days Rodeo as well as the policies contained herein. I agree to the conditions of the Conduct and Behavior Policy Agreement and assume responsibility for my actions.
